

MISSION BISTRO

"food is our passion, service is our strength"

"Beyond the pale," an expression used to describe outrageous behavior, originated in Ireland in the 14th century. The Pale was the area of Ireland under heavy British control. People living in areas outside it were considered wild and outlandish.

Good Luck Charms

Horseshoes

Which are the most recognized symbol of good fortune. Placing an upright, used horse shoe at the top right corner of your front door is considered to be an invitation for good luck to enter the home.

Locket

Lucky charm lockets may take form of almost any luck symbol, including Yantras. They attract good luck and remain in close physical contact to the wearer.

Feathers

The feather is an ancient good luck charm and represents the journey of the soul to the other realm.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated worldwide by Irish people and by non-Irish people. Celebrations are generally themed around all things Irish, and by association, the color green. Both Christians and non-Christians celebrate the secular version of the holiday by wearing green or orange, eating Irish food and/or green foods, imbibing Irish drinks (such as Guinness or Bailey's Irish Creme) and attending parades.

Irish Foods to Feast On!

- Corned Beef and Cabbage with Horseradish Sauce
- Split Pea and Hamhock Soup
- Strawberry Scones
- Irish Pancakes with Golden Syrup

